Gordie Levitsky

gordie.levitsky@mail.utoronto.ca   647-654-9449
https://gordielsky.github.io/

Skills

Technical Skills
- ➢ Strong understanding of HTML, CSS and JS used to produce a high quality personal website
- ➢ Experience programming in Java and Python, used to develop dozens of university projects

Interpersonal Skills
- ➢ Active self-starter demonstrated by recent initiatives in website design and problem solving
- ➢ Exquisite team player, bringing a positive attitude to any group, used at work and in group assignments resulting in a more enjoyable and productive experience for all parties involved
- ➢ Outstanding problem-solving and critical thinking used to methodically solve hundreds of unique guest problems at work, providing them with a "best day of the year" experience

Education

University of Toronto Scarborough   2017 – Present
Candidate, Honours Bachelor of Science — Specialist in Computer Science Co-op, 2nd year
- ➢ cGPA: 3.97 / 4.0

Projects and Competitions

Computer Science and Mathematics Competitions
- ➢ Applied knowledge of Python to design algorithms (https://open.kattis.com/) resulting in a top 10 placement among UofT students
- ➢ Competed in the UofT Undergraduate Mathematics competition and Google Code Jam 2018
- ➢ Participated in team and individual programming competitions, including the CCC, resulting in consistent placements among the top 50%

Personal Website Development
- ➢ Created a dynamically rescaling website to develop a strong understanding of HTML and CSS
- ➢ Designed a JavaScript animation to learn the core concepts of JS development

Experience

Guest Services Associate   March 2016 – October 2017
Canada's Wonderland, Vaughan, ON
- ➢ Collaborated and communicated with managers from other departments to solve high-pressure issues in an appropriate and satisfactory manner for the guest
- ➢ Resolved issues for up to 60 guests an hour in person, over the phone and through email resulting in many satisfied guests in a wide variety of unique situations

Math Kangaroo Volunteer   March 2018
University of Toronto Scarborough, Scarborough, ON
- ➢ Aided in setup, registration and cleanup for a junior mathematics competition at UTSC resulting in the successful organization of hundreds of students in their respective locations